

1. Education

---

10/2021—present	DPhil International Relations, University of Oxford (University College) Radcliffe Scholar. Focus area: international political economy Dissertation title: Gravedigger of the present: Historical memory and the endurance of the neoliberal economic order
09/2017 – 09/2018	MSc. International Political Economy, London School of Economics and Political Science, London (Distinction)
09/2016 – 07/2017	Faculty of Economics and Business, Humboldt University-Berlin Pursued master's level coursework in economics
09/2012 – 12/2015	B.A. History; Economics; Minor in European Studies, University of Wisconsin-Madison, WI, USA (Distinction)
Summer 2016	University of Havana, Cuba Exchange Student
Spring 2014	Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic Exchange Student

2. Professional experience

---

01/2020 – present	Affiliate Policy Fellow, Jacques Delors Centre—Berlin, Germany Research transatlantic political and economic relations, including extraterritorial sanctions, EU-US trade, and environmental cooperation. Have written policy papers, policy briefs, and spoken on panels with policymakers such as Josep Borrell about the impact of economic coercion on the EU.
03/2019 – 10/2021	Research Associate, Hertie School/Dahrendorf Forum—Berlin, Germany Analyze and research topics across the social sciences. Primary project has been a 150-page report on soft power for the German Foreign Office and research support for the Berggruen Governance Index. Also served as Editorial Assistant for the journal Global Perspectives .
06/2018 – 01/2019	Research Assistant and US and the Americas Program Administrator, Chatham House, The Royal Institute of International Affairs—London, UK Researched transatlantic relations, including writing a 10,000-word research paper for the UK Foreign Office on the future of US-UK relations. Also assisted senior researchers with projects on global trade and security and managed operational details such as budgets and events. Began as intern in June 2018.
05/2017 – 01/2019	Research Assistant, Haas School of Business, University of California—Berkeley, CA, USA Analyzed data, conducted archival research, and synthesized findings as part of a long-term research project on economic development.
01/2017 – 09/2017	Student Research Assistant, Institute of Economic History, Humboldt University—Berlin, Germany Analyzed data, conducted archival research, edited papers for publication in academic journals. Main project analyzed historical German trade patterns.
10/2015 – 09/2017	Economics and Mathematics Tutor—Berlin, Germany Tutored 15-18 years olds in calculus, trigonometry, algebra, and micro and macroeconomics.
06-2014 – 08/2014	Summer Analyst, JP Morgan Chase—Chicago, IL, USA Optimised business practices in an internal strategic consulting role at JP Morgan's Corporate and Investment Bank.

09/2013 – 12/2013

Intern, Democratic Party of Wisconsin—Madison, WI, USA

Analyzed voting and donation databases to streamline fundraising and improve donation request response. Worked with senior management to convey policies.

---

3. Publications, Research, and Writing

---

Research Papers and Theses:

- 06/2020 The Weaponisation of the US Financial System: How Can Europe Respond? – Policy Paper for the Hertie School's Jacques Delors Centre
- 12/2019 Foreign Cultural and Educational Policy in International Comparison – Policy report for the German Foreign Office
- 01/2019 The US in 2030—Chatham House Research Paper for UK Foreign Office
- 09/2018 Fighting the Last Crisis: Historical Memory and International Political Economy – Master's Thesis (Distinction)
- 05/2015 Seeing Like a State Builder: 'High Modernist' War and US Intervention in Vietnam – Undergraduate Thesis

Briefings and Analyses:

- 10/2020 'To combat conspiracy theories, fight social decay and inequality'—Dahrendorf Forum Blog
- 10/2020 'No going back? A transatlantic cooperation agenda under Biden'—Jacques Delors Centre Policy Brief
- 04/2020 'COVID-19 and the ideological damage to globalisation'—Dahrendorf Forum Blog Post
- 03/2020 'Don't Fear a President Sanders, Europe'—Berlin Policy Journal Op-ed
- 12/2019 'After Brexit 'gets done': the UK-EU relationship post-2020' – Dahrendorf Forum Blog Post
- 12/2019 'Renewal and Reform: The future of European trade policy' – Dahrendorf Forum Blog Post
- 10/2019 'Caught in the Crossfire: How the EU can navigate the US-China trade dispute' – Dahrendorf Forum Blog Post
- 07/2019 'A Century of 'America First': The history of American exceptionalism in transatlantic relations' – Dahrendorf Forum Commentary
- 04/2019 'Seventy Years Old and Showing Signs of Age: NATO and the Future of European Defence' – Dahrendorf Forum Blog Post
- 11/2017 'The US Midterm Elections: Six Things You Should Know' – Chatham House Explainer

---

4. Scholarships and Awards

---

- 12/2018 Distinction-London School of Economics and Political Science
- 01/2017 Deutschlandstipendium (Germany Scholarship)
- 05/2015 University of Wisconsin Independent Research Award
- 05/2015 Phi Beta Kappa – The US' oldest and most prestigious university honor society
- 01/2014 University of Wisconsin International Scholars Award

5. Skills

---

Software: All Microsoft Office products, Adobe Photoshop, Stata, Lexis-Nexis

Languages: English (native speaker), German (B2), Spanish (B1)